LIBERTY, Mo., Dec. 03, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- As the energy landscape continues to evolve, strong propane industry leadership has never been more important. That's why Ferrellgas Partners, L.P. (OTC: FGPR) is proud to announce that Megan Sharp, Vice President of Operations Support, has been appointed to the Propane Education & Research Council's (PERC's) leadership team as one of its newest Councilors. PERC guides national, industrywide efforts in safety and training, research, consumer education, and the responsible advancement of propane.

Part of PERC's goal is to ensure propane is part of the national energy conversation. "Propane is a clean, affordable, reliable energy source," said Sharp. "I've worked in this industry for nearly 20 years and have seen how it can positively impact the lives of millions of Americans – from heating homes to drying crops and powering school buses. I'm thrilled to play a bigger role by joining PERC as a Councilor. I hope to advance our industry for years to come."

Sharp knows what it takes to lead with professionalism and a heart of service. In addition to her leadership roles at Ferrellgas, she is a proud veteran of the Nevada Air National Guard. "My time serving our country taught me so much, including what it means to be part of a team, how to focus on the common good, and owning every task. I'm looking forward to doing the same on PERC's council," she said.

Ferrellgas' President and CEO Tamria Zertuche added, "Megan's appointment to PERC is a testament to her leadership in operations, safety, and customer experience. We're proud to see her represent Ferrellgas at the national level and contribute to the future of our industry."
